Top Reasons to Support

- 1 We provide confidential services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, including individuals and families, at no cost.
- 2 We staff two 24-hour hotlines: One for domestic violence and one for sexual assault.
- 3 We have a residential facility, Patricia House, to house individuals and families fleeing violence in their homes.
- 4 We are on call 24/7/365.
- 5 We provide on-site emergency response at local hospitals, police departments, and at court. Walk-ins are served at our main office at 2 West Street office in downtown Danbury.
- 6 Our counseling services cover a broad range of topics such as self-esteem, ending relationships, separation and divorce, coping with stress and anxiety, bullying, and LGBTQ+ issues.
- 7 We provide no cost education programs for all ages—from preschool to senior citizens. These programs are provided in schools, colleges, businesses, social and civic groups, and faith-based organizations.
- 8 We are the only state-certified provider of these support services in our 11-town community: Bethel, Brookfield, New Milford, Redding, Roxbury, Bridgewater, Danbury, New Fairfield, Newtown, Ridgefield, and Sherman.
- 9 We serve more than 30,000 individuals and families annually.
- 10 We rely on donations for more than half the funds needed to run CEE, so we can be there for all those who turn to us for help.

Creating safer communities free from interpersonal violence.
